Subject: COMPUTER EDUCATION TECHNIQUES, INC. Past Performance Evaluation (PPE) - Follow-Up

Dear David,

Thank you for selecting Open Ratings to complete a Past Performance Evaluation on your behalf. As a result of customer demand we are now expanding the program to enable you to use the report as a marketing tool. Through this program you can purchase a license to display your Past Performance Evaluation (PPE) Report on your website, marketing collateral or through a press release.

Pricing and Order Instructions

We are pleased to offer you a special price of $300.

"Verified By Open Ratings" Program

Each year, Open Ratings helps thousands of companies secure GSA contracts by verifying their performance through Past Performance Evaluations (PPEs). Having recently completed a PPE, you qualify for an exciting new program that enables you to promote your PPE score to current and prospective customers.

Click here to take advantage of this outstanding opportunity!

As part of the program, you will receive:

PPE Promotion License

We will send you a PPE report that you are licensed to distribute to your customers and prospects. You can post it online, send it by email, include it in proposals or use it for any other creative marketing purpose. A PPE Promotion License is an exciting and cost effective way to leverage your excellent customer satisfaction.

Verified by Open Ratings Web Page

We will also create a "Verified by Open Ratings" web page on openratings.com that you can use to promote your excellent PPE score. Your web page will contain a downloadable version of your PPE and will assure your customers and prospects that your customer satisfaction has been verified by Open Ratings.
